The Lilly Gold 3-n-1 NAP SAC

Simplify your life....

Supermoms haul around the whole kit and caboodle (diaper bag, changing table accessories, removable car seat, blanket for naps.) Smart moms just grab this. The Nap-Sac™ by Lilly Gold is a deluxe diaper bag that folds open into a self-contained changing station or comfy bassinet.

Product Features

Four padded sides fold up to keep baby tucked inside, making it perfect for places that don't have changing stations (and more sanitary for places that do.)

When it's time for a nap, baby can lay down on her back or side in the padded bassinet, rather than harnessed in the car seat.

The bottom pad has a wet-proof plastic cover and comes with a soft, cotton slip for changing and a zebra print sheet for sleeping.

It also has all the spacious pockets you could hope for to keep things separate and easy to find.

Product Description

The bag is made of durable nylon canvas and sized to be carried as a regular tote. It has a wide, adjustable strap with a padded shoulder and large, easy-to-grab, up-facing zips on the 4 expand-out pockets.
